Next-gen Talent Award (30 years and under)

This award recognises rising stars in the coffee and cafe industry under 30 years of age, making waves early in their careers. This category celebrates individuals showing exceptional promise, passion, and impact early in their careers across any sector of the Australian coffee industry.

Recognises: Emerging young or early-career professionals

Criteria

1. What is the nominee's age, position title, and current role
2. What business projects/developments has this individual been involved in that has resulted in positive change?
3. What are the measurable impacts of this individual’s contributions?